PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Come now, Plaintiffs, by and through counsel, and for their Motion for Partial Summary Judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56, state as follows:

1. One of the issues raised in Plaintiffs' Complaint is whether the documents sold by LegalZoom.com, Inc. ("LegalZoom") are within the definitions found in Missouri's Unauthorized Practice of Law statutes (§§ 484.010-.020, RSMo), which state in part that documents come within the Unauthorized Practice of Law statutes if they affect or relate to "secular rights."

. As more completely set forth in the Suggestions in Support of this Motion, this straightforward and narrow legal question is appropriate for summary judgment.

3. The uncontroverted material facts and reasons supporting why this Motion should be granted are more fully set forth in the Suggestions in Support of this Motion, which are filed contemporaneously herewith and are incorporated herein by this reference.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request this Court grant their Motion for Partial Summary Judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56 on the issue of whether the documents at issue in this case affect or relate to secular rights, in addition to such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.
